

Gowrie Group to speak at the US SAILING Yacht Club Summit

We encourage you and your flag officers to attend the upcoming 2011 Yacht Club Summit. This exciting inaugural event, hosted by US SAILING in Chicago on April 2-3, promises to be a learning opportunity not to be missed. Gowrie Group and The Burgee Program are proud sponsors of this upcoming event.

Gowrie's yacht club insurance experts - Carter Gowrie, Steve Prime, and John Fisher - will be part of the Waterfront Management panel and be presenting an interactive seminar on yacht club insurance.

America's Cup icon Ted Turner will be issuing the keynote address and a host of other industry leaders will be leading informative sessions on topics of critical relevance to clubs including: hosting signature events, refurbishment of clubs, managing information technology, long range planning, enhancing junior programs, increasing membership, and more.

US SAILING president, Gary Jobson, is the event moderator. He shares his thoughts on the event: "It is essential that our yacht clubs provide excellent service to their members and the sailing community at-large. The weekend summit will bring together the best innovative thinking across the country and a wide variety of topics. Any yacht club planning on redefining their mission, attracting new members, understanding how to complete a major renovation, or becoming relevant in their community will want to participate in this ground-breaking event."
