

Kristen Lincoln Joins Gowrie Group as an Account Executive

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 3, 2013. North Kingstown, RI.

SUMMARY: Gowrie Group, a prominent independent insurance agency, is pleased to announce Kristen Lincoln joined the company as an Account Executive within the commercial insurance department. She will focus on bringing Gowrie's niche insurance programs and services to municipalities and non-profits throughout New England.

Gowrie Group, a prominent insurance agency in the Northeast, is pleased to announce Kristen Lincoln joined the company as an Account Executive within the Commercial Lines department. Kristen brings to the company a strong background in law, politics, and organizational leadership. She will enable Gowrie to expand their reach of niche insurance programs further into the municipality and non-profit segments throughout New England.

Brad Preston, Senior Vice-President of Gowrie Group, said, "Kristen has an interesting background and extraordinary experience that will enable her to skillfully address our clients' complex risk management and insurance issues. We're pleased to have her become a member of our growing municipal and non-profit practice."

"I'm thrilled to start a new challenge with Gowrie Group. Their emphasis on delivering top rate customer service and a superior product is very much in line with my own professional philosophy. I look forward to working with the team to further our growth in the region," stated Kristen

Kristen received her law degree from Boston College in 2010 and graduated summa cum laude from St. Joseph's University in 2007. Prior to joining Gowrie Group, she was the vice president and race director for an endurance racing series. She is an active volunteer for the St. Edmund's Retreat at Ender's Island and the Ocean Community YMCA, in addition to serving on the board for the Southeastern Connecticut chapter of Girls on the Run. She is an avid runner and has completed thirteen marathons with another planned in late 2013. She enjoys sharing her passion of the sport with others and coaches aspiring endurance athletes in her spare time. She resides in Groton, CT with her husband. She can be reached at kristenl@gowrie.com and at 860.399.2862.
